

3/25/2010 1:18:00 AM

Voice teens kick (cigarette) butts

By Steven Furlow
Staff Writer

Members of VOICE in Hamilton County, from left, Megan Hotte, Macy Cobb, Zac Ediza, Yessica Flores, Jannete Fernandez, Tucker Epperson and Arely Corona show off some of the cigarette butts they collected Wednesday on the square in Noblesville. The group's annual clean up works to raise awareness of the dangers of tobacco and encourages all, especially young people, to learn more and make healthy life choices. More information at www.voice.tv.

The Times photos by Steven Furlow

Members of VOICE, a youth-led movement protesting the tobacco industry's influence on their peers, from left, Yessica Flores, Jannete Fernandez and Arley Corona, all students at Westfield High school, pick up cigarette butts outside the Hamilton County Government and Judicial Center in Noblesville Wednesday as part of Kick Butts Day to raise awareness of the dangers of tobacco.